Elizabeth Engelken O'Connor announces candidacy for Williamsburg-James City County Circuit Court in November 7, 2023 Election

Chief Deputy Clerk seeks to succeed Mona Foley, Clerk of Court James City & City of Williamsburg

Toano, Virginia, January 19, 2023: Elizabeth Engelken O'Connor announces her candidacy for the Clerk of Circuit Court in Williamsburg-James City County. A lifelong resident of James City County, O'Connor graduated from Lafayette High School and the College of William and Mary.

She has worked in Circuit Court since 2013 and currently serves as Chief Deputy Clerk. Previous duties as Deputy Clerk include serving as Land Records supervisor and Probate Clerk. If successful, she would replace Mona Foley who will retire this year.

"I have been fortunate to have had Mona as a mentor and greatly value her knowledge and dedication to public service. I will ensure that the office of Circuit Court continues to serve our citizens with efficiency, excellence, and respect. I will make sure that we meet the needs of our jurisdictions as they grow by investing in appropriate technology, staff training, and making records available to the public." Mrs. O'Connor is honored to be endorsed by Mona Foley.

O'Connor and her husband Timothy have four children and are members of St. Olaf Catholic Church, and she looks forward to continuing to serve as a leader in James City County and the City of Williamsburg.
